Randolph County Women's McKinley Club Has a Rally-Bourke Cockran at Terre Haute.

Special to the Indianapolis Tournat. ANGOLA, Ind., Oct. 27 .- There was a great outpouring of people, not only from Steuben county, but from adjacent countties, to-day, the crowd being variously estimated at nearly 10,000. It was certainly the biggest crowd ever seen in Angola, There was a stupendous parade in the forenoon, made up of delegations from different townships, wagons and floats representing various industries, numerous bands, McKinley clubs on foot. The procession was fifty-five minutes passing a given point. In the afternoon Hon. J. A. Mount addressed a great throng in Courthouse Park, and General Lew Wallace spoke an hour and a half in the opera house. Then the speakers exchanged places, so that both were heard by each audience. Mr. Mount's voice is seriously impaired by continuous speaking, but he made himself heard, and his logical and clean-cut arguments were well received and heartily applauded. While Mr. Mount is a great favorite in this region, especially among farmers, General Wallace was perhaps the hero of the hour to-day. Almost everybody, young as well as old, was anxious to peared to be at his best, and his reasons why he "cannot vote for Bryan" were forcspeech was a rare treat, delighting old soldiers and everybody else. In the evening Judge R. W. McBride addressed a great crowd in the opera house, and C. C. Gilhaums, of Lagrange, had another meeting in the armory.

SENTINEL REFUSES JUSTICE. Muncle Manufacturers Protest Against

an Unjust Libel. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

MUNCIE, Ind., Oct. 27.- Muncie manufacturers who have done their share to advance the interests of Indiana during the past eight years feel highly insulted at the publication in the Indianapolis Sentinel yesterday in which they are charged with the crime of coercing 2,000 employes, and the refusal of the paper to correct the lie after the man given for authority of the publication brands it as false. It is known here that Mr. Hilligoss yesterday sent a letter to the Sentinel demanding a retraction of the alleged interview, and the paper re-fused, or did not publish his statement, displaying the true color of its intention to Nearly twenty local manufacturers, gardless of politics, have prepared cards for the Journal, stating in effect that the Hilligoss statement, as it appeared in the Indianapolis Sentinel, is without foundation, and further saying: "We have no tenement nouses and have made no effort in any way to compel or coerce our men to vote as we think they should in favor of sound money, protection and prosperity. And we believe the most of our men are fully alive to their interests, and are, of their own accord, working for the election of Mr. Mc-Kinley, and doing everything in their power to influence an overwhelming victory for the protection ticket." Those signing these cards are the Hemingray Glass Company, Muncie Well Company, C. H. #### A POPOCRATIC TRICK.

Prominent Republicans in Green County Charged with Bribery.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 27 .- Monday the Democrats had Alexander Harben, of Stafford township; William Boyd, trustee of Grant township, and O. A. Sancerman, trustee of Wright township, arrested for bribery. These gentlemen are Repulibeans, and are among the most prominent and respected men of Greene county. The Popocrats have a floater go to a worthy Republican gentleman or an officer and procure aid in the way of medicine or groceries, and then have the stool pigeon swear out a charge of bribery against the men that had innocently helped him. To-day William Boyd come to Bloomfield and forced his case to trial but the Poperate dishis case to trial, but the Popocrats dismissed the case and naturally vindicated Mr. Boyd. Mr. Boyd's accuser was Hiram Lawson, an ex-convict, who is still under disfranchisement. These arrests prove that t is an organized trick and is probably being practiced throughout the State. Another threatened trick is that the Popocratic challengers propose to challenge every Republican that comes to the polis on election day. They are mad and are getting desperate and propose to do everything possible to make Republicans lose votes. The Republicans are wide-awake and will carry Greene county by an overwhelming

Mrs. Nelson spoke this afternoon at Lynn at a Republican rally and pole raising, where there were from 3,000 to 4,000 people, dele-gations being present from Williamsburg. rountain City, Spartansburg, Bloomingport and Huntsville. A pole 126 feet high was raised by the women, and a parade, representing the different industries of the country was one of the special features. One of the most forcible exhibits of the parade was a large wagon containing a miniature white house with Mrs. McKinley just entering it, Mrs. Cleveland taking her departure. The entire parade was conducted

"Lafe" Johnson's Home Reception. special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 27 .- "Lafe" Johnson, of this city, who is the Republican candidate for joint Senator for Madison and Grant counties, was given a rousing reception here last night. A colored quartet sang several selections. There were loud calls for Johnson, and he made a hit at the start by saying that he was a laboring man out of a job on account of the present Democratic administration, but with the election of McKinley next Tuesday he would get his working clothes on at once. For more than an hour he discussed questions of finance and economics cussed questions of finance and economics relating to State, county and national affairs that marked him as a safe man to send to the State Senate. Eclipsed the Bryan Meeting.

special to the Indianapolis Journal FAIRMOUNT, Ind., Oct. 27.-There was an immense Republican rally here to-day. Delegations came from Summitville, Alexandria, Marion, Point Isabel, Matthews and numerous other places, and they made enough noise to elect McKinley in this district, if such a thing were possible. He was escorted to the speakers stand in the fair ground by the Summitvill drum corps, the Fairmount McKinley Club, the McKinley Glee Club, The Marion City Band, the Fairmount drum corps and the Glassworkers' McKinley Club. SPEECHES MADE AT THE OPENING OF THE FRENCH PARLIAMENT.

Much Expected as a Result of the Czar and Czarina's Recent Visit-M. Meline Interrupted.

(Copyright, 1896, by the Associated Press.) PARIS, Oct. 27.-The Parliament of France, Senate and Chamber of Deputies, assembled to-day. The sessions of both Chambers were merely formal and lasted only an hour. The presidents of the two Chambers, in their opening addresses, alluded in strong and sympathetic terms to the recent visit of the Czar and Czarina to France. The president of the Chamber of Railroad Men's Sound-money Club and Mr. | Deputies, M. Brisson, after reading a letter from President Faure, giving the wording of the Czar's telegram to the chief gard to Terre Haute's growth in making | magistrate of France on leaving that coun. try, said the Chamber of Deputies in 1881 return to the conditions of 1873. There was no attempt to show Mr. Cockan any display of party spirit on the occasion of meet- | with a salute of the august visitors and proffer their wishes for the glory of a reign of prosperity throughout the empire. Continuing, M. Brisson remarked: "After the manifestations at Cronstadt and Touwas a wonderful contrast exhibited in this | lon the days of October have welded cratic France which had in union and con-Everywhere the crowds showed the Czar and Czarina the same heart and will. What a spectacle! What a symbol from which to derive confidence and hove!

The speech of President Brissen was rapurously applauded. The Premier, M. Meline, in behalf of the government, thanked the chamber, which, he added, had shown by its applause the value it placed on the great event which could not fail to strengthen the government abroad while giving it the necessary unity to speak in the name of France. There were frequent interruptions from the extreme left during the re-marks of M. Meline apparently foreshad-owing some aggressive tactics in the near future. The Chamber then adjourned for the day. In the Senate the President, M. Loubet, read the same letter from President Faurwhich M. Brisson had read in the Chamber of Deputies, and in the course of his remarks said that the visit of the Czar and Czarina to France gave the country the chance to demonstrate that their sympathies were founded on community of aspi-lations and interests. Continuing, M. Louet said: "The enthusiastic receptions a Cronstadt and Toulon signalized the amity of the two peoples. The unanimous acclamations of the august guests of France affirm with persistence those sympathies, and the speeches made at Cherbourg, Paris and Chalons have definitely consecrated the two nations. The union thus gioriously formed has already exercised beneficent action and has promoted serious hopes of great developments of the influence of france throughout the world. M. Loubet's speech was greatly applauded the Senators. The Minister of Justice Darlen, in behalf of the government thanked the Senators for the sympathetl manner in which they had approved of the sentiments expressed in regard to the visit of the Czar and Czarina to Franca.

POPE LEO'S FEARS.

Thinks the Election May Cause Division Among Bishops Here. LONDON, Oct. 27 .- The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon publishes a dispatch from Rome which says: "The presidential election (in the United States) is the absorbing should not be carried to such topic at the Vatican, the explanation being the strides which Catholicism has made it. that the standing danger to Romanism in the United States is the independence of the American bishops, notable since the time of Plus IX. The latter fully recognized that these bishops enjoyed greater power than their brethren elsewhere and he showed that he understood this by his witty answer to some English priests who asked for certain privileges. He said: 'I am, as you say, Pope; yet I cannot accept your request. But,' added the Pontiff, with a slight twinkle in his eye, 'I can show you a way to obtain your desire. Go to America, for there the bishops are greater than the Pope.' On the accession of Pope Leo matters assumed a different aspect. He charged Mgr. Satolli with the duty of in-timating to the bishops in unmistakabe language the limits of their powers and the result was something like a split, which it took Mgr. Satolli two years to heal. But his mission had good results." Mall Gazette remarks that the Vatican does not desire its representatives in America to take an active part in the campaign,

The average expenditure per day of these visi-

For 1,250,000 visitors a total is reached of nearly 197,000,000 francs, in round numbers 200,000,000 francs. Naturally, this sum does not include purchases, but only such expenses of which it may be said that there is now nothing left. Of this sum an eighth must be assigned to railway traveling, 7,000,000f to locomotion in Paris, at Cherbourg, at Versailles, or at Chalons, 32,000,000f to lodgings and to the hire of balconies and windows, 24,000,000f to cafes, cafe concerts, brasseries and theaters, which, however, during the first five days were little frequented by strangers, 6,000,000f to unforeseen expenses, and more than 100,000,-100.000,000 for eating and drinking. ## Sour Kitchen

No kitchen is kept cleaner than the premises devoted to the manufacture of NONE SUCH Mince Meat. No housewife can be more fastidious in the matter of preparing food than we are in the selection and preparation of the materials of which it is made. The cleaning of the currants (for one thing) is more thoroughly done by means of perfected appliances, than it would be possible to do it by hand.

Its cleanliness, purity, wholesomeness and deliciousness are good reasons for using NONE SUCH Mince Meat. The best reason is its saving-of time, of bard work, of money. A ten cent package affords you two large pies, without trouble to you beyond the making of the crust. Makes just as good fruit cake and fruit pudding as it does mince pie. Sold everywhere. NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- John C. Sheehan, of Tammany Hall, to-night issued a statement to the voters of the city of New York. He accused employers of endeavoring to coerce their men to vote for McKinley and publican parade this week if they were obliged to. He says in part: "There are thousands of men who will join in this procession who are in sympathy with the Democratic candidates. In submitting to such a system of tyranny these employes are adopting the only wise course open to them. Having others depending on them for support, they should comply with the request of their employers, no matter how unjust or un-reasonable the demand may be. If insisted on, they should even wear McKinley buttons as well as parade. On Tuesday next they will have the power to resent this in-
